

Friends and Community

Friends are important because they make us happy and support us.

Friends are important because they play with me and help me to learn to take turns and to share.

Being part of the community means being able to join in activities, make friends and to have fun.

Being part of the community means belonging to different groups and relationships.

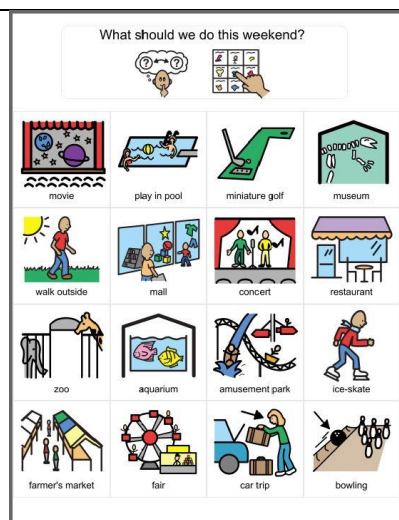

Being part of the community means being able to use the services that are for everyone.

Joining in activities in the local community

Being able to make decisions about how to spend free time

Getting about

Keeping Safe

