

Jane, aged 17

“My carers are always there for me, at all times. They treat me as if I were their own daughter and their children make me feel part of the family too. I can now say I live in the perfect family”

Jane describes herself as lucky because, in her opinion, she has the ‘best foster carers in the world’.

“My carers are always there for me, at all times. They treat me as if I were their own daughter and their children make me feel part of the family too. I can now say I live in the perfect family.

“They accept me for who I am and allow me to get things wrong but never give up on me.

“They encourage me and set goals for my future and, most importantly, they are loving and affectionate towards me. I know they truly care.

“I’ve had a number of carers over the years but now I know that this one is forever until I am 21 because they have made a commitment to me and showed they really care. Perfect Foster Carers!”
