

LONDON BOROUGH OF BROMLEY
THE AREA ACTION PLAN FOR BROMLEY TOWN CENTRE

STATEMENT OF ADOPTION

ON 25TH October 2010

In Accordance with

REGULATION 24(4) AND REGULATION 36 OF THE PLANNING AND COMPULSORY PURCHASE ACT 2004 AS AMENDED BY THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (LOCAL DEVELOPMENT) (ENGLAND) (AMENDMENT) REGULATIONS 2008

(a) The title.
Bromley Town Centre Area Action Plan – Statement of Adoption

(b) The subject matter.
This statement gives notice that the Bromley Town Centre Area Action Plan was formally adopted by the London Borough of Bromley on 25th of October 2010 as a Development Plan Document (DPD).

The document forms part of the Local Development Framework for the borough setting out the development opportunities for Bromley Town Centre over the next 15 years. It includes major redevelopment opportunities, major traffic and transport infrastructure changes and lays down the planning framework for significant change and conservation, including detailed development control policies.

Any person who feels aggrieved by the Bromley Town Centre Area Action Plan may make an application to the High Court under Section 113 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the grounds that the document is not within the appropriate power and/or that a procedural requirement has not been complied with. Such an application must be made no later than the end of the period of six weeks starting on the above adoption date (Regulation 24 (4)(b & c)).

Copies of the Adopted Area Action Plan are available for inspection on the Bromley Council Web site –
